Principal Report-Dawn Kennaugh

--The district has the option to request 3 additional snow days from the state. Assuming those are approved, which is very likely, we have 1 snow day left before we need to add days to our calendar.

--The planned anti-bullying assembly will have to be rescheduled. It was originally planned for last week when school had to be closed.

--Beagle is starting a newspaper. Mrs. Scholten and Miss Briggs are heading it up. Some 5th and 6th grade students are writing articles.

President Report-Kristy Welch

--Spring Fundraiser: We are planning a Cravings popcorn fundraiser. Hopefully it will start later this month and the popcorn will be delivered before spring break. We are thinking to provide a pizza party to the best selling class and gift cards to District 5 for the top three individual sellers.

Vice President Report-Nikki Selleck

--Box Tops: Cindy Hoskins - The current contest runs through February 15th. The winning class gets a pizza party. We recently received a check from Box Tops for $1,109.40. That was for March-November 2018.

--Mileage Club: Kari Oberdank-Flyers have gone home. Sign ups began on February 1st.

Secretary Report-Amy Ellsworth

--No Report.

Treasurer Report-Meghan Ritchey

--We recieved a check for $39.23 from the 5Below fundraiser.

--Tamara Lipsey is hoping for more money for Science Night. We are open to considering that, but are waiting for the exact amount.

--Nikki Selleck moved to approve $30 for a restaurant gift card for Mrs. Vstecka from the compassionate fund, seconded by Dawn Kennaugh. The motion was approved.

Public Relations Report-Rachel Schafer

--Looking for ideas of ways to better communicate what we are doing with our teachers. We agreed that most of our communications go to parents. Perhaps it would be helpful to put together a list of our upcoming events and send it directly to the teachers.

Activities Coordinators Report-Lindsay Trevains (absent) and Kate Jenkins

--Staff Luncheon is in a few weeks. Probably on February 28th. We are going to ask parents for donations for a soup and salad bar. Kate will reach out to find someone to coordinate.
